

Robin Winfield

Born in St. Louis, MO in 1956, Winfield grew up surrounded by art and artists and was taught a deep appreciation of them by her parents Rodney and Betty Winfield. Before graduating from John Burroughs High School she spent half a year in Tokyo, Japan as an exchange student. Winfield then attended Smith College in Northampton, MA where she majored in Fine Art. In 1979 Winfield worked with her father on a large fabric commission. As a result she found a love of the tactile and continued with a 10 year exploration into wearable arts after moving to Wellfleet on Cape Cod. Having taken photographs since a teenager, Winfield finally found the direction she continues in today. In 1989 a photograph became a focal point on a canvas and her painting finished the story around it. Winfield loves to travel and photograph, mostly architectural subjects and makes her home with her husband Ron Baxter in Monterey CA. She has shown her work in many galleries around the country and opened her own Gallery/Studio in Carmel in 2009.
