01-Grapes on the Vine.jpg

02-201.jpg

Very nice depth of the photo. I like how your eye goes all the way into the back of the photo. The theme is clearly visible.

03-A Web of Circles.jpg

Nice use of patterns, layers and texture. The circles really stand out in the droplets.

04-Caboose Brake Wheel.jpg

Wonderful use of texture and color. Using the crop tool in PhotoShop can help straighten some of the lines. Off center just a tad.

05-Busted in Hollywood.jpg

Lovely use of light and shadows. Nice way to frame your subjects. A very vintage Hollywood lighting feel.

06-Indian Mortar.jpg

Very nice textures. Interesting technique with the leaves. It made me stop and look hard to what was happening with the leaves.

07-Radishes.jpg

Great use of pattern and color. Bringing the exposure down a little will help make the color richer.

08-Raindrops on Clover.jpg

Very nice Macro Photography. Great depth, color and bokeh.

09-Structural Circles.jpg

Nice shot of circular patterns. The front circle is highlighted and fades to grey. Nice depth. Good job
