

Black & White:

The Path.jpg

Jerry Heisel

While I've been to this Richard Serra sculpture numerous times, I've never seen a picture of it quite like this. Nicely seen.

Nicole Asselborn

Great camera obscura image, reminiscent of Abe Morrell. Well done.

Nature:

Among the tomatoes.jpg

Nicole Asselborn

So this is what's happening in my garden! It's great to get this macro view of nature, something that I don't normally witness. As a fan of the movie, Microcosmos, I really responded to this photograph.

Photojournalism:

COPA convention 2018.jpg

Nicole Asselborn

I'm not sure what the COPA convention is, but I like the solemnity of this moment.

Pictorial:

Light Patterns on Moss Landing SB .jpg

Kent Van Vuren

I'm not quite sure what's going on in this picture, whether the photographer is moving or whether there are multiple exposures, but this is part of what I like about this image. Its mystery.

Travel:

Santa Cruz Wharf and Waterfront.jpg

Amy Sibiga

Nice use of a long lens to compress the scene. I actually didn't realize it was Santa Cruz at first. Nicely done.
