

Judged by: Richard Cannon

01 - Screening Terror Suspects due to high alert in Jerusalem.jpg

This image meets and/or exceeds all of the criteria for Photojournalism. It strongly depicts the tensions and the dangers of everyday life in this part of the world.

02 - Terror suspect Jerusalem 2015 day before attack.jpg

This image also meets and/or exceeds all of the criteria for Photojournalism. It strongly depicts the tensions and the dangers of everyday life in this part of the world.

03 - Beginnings of the 2019 Carrizo Plains superbloom.jpg

Beautiful image, however, as photojournalism, it is marginal in terms of newsworthiness.

04 - Bird Deaths from Car Crashes in Millions.jpg

A very sad and disturbing image. Even in death, the owl's facial expression tells the story.

05-Buster Posey at bat World Series 2012.jpg

Baseball is known as one of the “rites of spring” and this image captures that spirit in a convincing manor.

06-ButDangerLooms.jpg

One can almost hear the two birds discussing their options! Great shot, but the photojournalism value is marginal.

07-Coastal erosion of Del Monte Beach.JPG

Well composed image and timely/newsworthy given the heavy rains this year. A bit of lightening of the dark area would be a big improvement..

08-Fallen Tree Damages House during Storm.jpg

Great sequencing showing the results of the torrential rains.

09-Fleet Week By The Bay.jpg

Well done image, however, as a photojournalism image, the newsworthiness is marginal.

10-Fleet Week Patriots.jpg

Well done image, however, as a photojournalism image, the newsworthiness is marginal..

11-GT 8-hour endurance race at Laguna Seca.jpg

Bright and colorful image. Very little photojournalism value.

12-Huskies Enjoy Running-Their Owners Should Too.jpg

Fun, interesting image. The dog's and the runner's facial expressions are consistent with the title. Overall, the image is marginal for photojournalism..

13-Life Moves On.jpg

What appears to be a large bone being eaten by the scavengers aligns with the image title, however, there is still very little photojournalism value.

14-Marine Mammal Rescue.jpg

Well done sequencing of an ongoing concern.

15-PeacefulBeginning.jpg

Adorable shot, however, very little photojournalism value..

16-Plastic sand bags deteriorating into Moss Landing Harbor and our Marine Sanctuary.JPG

A well done shot. A tighter crop on the sandbags would help get the point across.

17-Prospect High Robotics Team Competing at the California Regional Robotis Tournament.jpg

Great facial expressions and body language showing young people engaged in productive teamwork.

18-Ready To Race with Samantha Tan.jpg

Well done shot, but the photojournalism value is minimal.

19-Spring is here. Father and son out for a walk.jpg

Delightful image. Weather was a big part of the news this year and this image tells a great story of what spring can bring.

20-Storm Damaged Country Club Gate Reopens.jpg

Without knowing or seeing the earlier damage, this image has very little photojournalistic value. A sequence showing the prior damage would help tell the story.

21-Thai Boxing.jpg

Great action shot showing an aspect of a culture that most Americans are not exposed to. Fantastic capture of body language and facial expressions

22-The Coffee Shop Trick for Learning.jpg

The people in this shot seem to be much more engaged with their devices than with each other—that seems to be the point. Interesting, but not especially newsworthy. Well done black and white with nice tonal values.

Winning Images:

Honorable Mentions

Fallen Tree Damages House during Storm

Dale Thies

Marine Mammal Rescue.jpg

Chryl Light

Spring is here. Father and son out for a walk.jpg

Dale Thies

17-Prospect High Robotics Team
Competing at the California Regional Robotis Tournament

Charlie Gibson

Third Place:

Thai Boxing,
Dick Light

2nd Place:

Terror suspect Jerusalem 2015 day before attack
Rick Thau

First Place:

Screening Terror suspects due to high alert in Jerusalem 2015

Rick Thau

